

David Lamoureux, FSA, MAAA

Deputy Chief Actuary, Actuarial Office
California Public Employees' Retirement System

Professional Experience

David Lamoureux is the Deputy Chief Actuary in the Actuarial Office of CalPERS. He has been with CalPERS in the role of a Pension Actuary since 1999. As the Deputy Chief Actuary, David is responsible for the overall operation of the Actuarial Office including actuarial and public policy matters and legislative issues. He also works closely with the CalPERS Board of Administration, CalPERS Executive Staff and participating employers on actuarial and funding issues.

Professional Organizations

Prior to joining CalPERS, Mr. Lamoureux served as a consulting actuary in the Vancouver office of Watson Wyatt Worldwide, a worldwide actuarial and benefits consulting firm. He has worked in the actuarial profession since 1994.

Mr. Lamoureux is a Fellow of the Society of Actuaries (F.S.A.) and a Member of the American Academy of Actuaries (M.A.A.A.). He earned his Bachelor's degree in Actuarial Science from Concordia University, Montreal in 1995.